Boycott Israel

As we go to print Britain is buzzing with the news of a murder outside a Manchester synagogue. Apparently, a Syrian-born Muslim, who has been allowed to become a British citizen, attacked a group of British Jews, killing one of them and injuring several others. The root of the conflict seems to be Israel's murderous campaign against Palestine, killing 68,000 civilians including 18,000 children. Britain's Labour government tries to face both ways. Supporting the establishment of an independent Palestinian state, whilst supplying Israel with the military hardware to murder Palestinians living in Gaza.

Israel claims its actions are aimed at Hamas terrorists, but refuses to allow free access to the world's media to its occupied territories, and fails to clarify how the thousands of children murdered by its military can be "terrorists".

It's now time for our government to take action!

Support the establishment of a Hamas-free Independent Palestinian state, and a complete boycott of all trade, import and export, military and commercial deals with Israel.

And do it now!

Well Done Tommy!

Congratulations to Tommy Robinson for his "Unite the Kingdom" march and rally in London. The event was the largest British patriotic march since the days of Sir Oswald Mosley and his British Fascists. Over 150,000 attended including leadership figures from Britain First and the Patriotic Alliance.

Whilst we support much of his political positions, (excluding his support for genocidal Israel) it is his ability to unite British patriots in a common cause that must be applauded. "Well done Tommy!"

Oops!

Mass migration has brought cultural diversion benefits to Britain we are told. But that was not the impression gained by food inspectors visiting a Vietnamese restaurant in Southwark, South London who found a dish labelled as goats meat wrapped in vine leafs was actually dog meat!

Lewisham council said "legal proceedings were on-going"!

Migration Crisis

Labour's Migrant Nightmare

Labour's General Election victory in July 2024 included the promise to "smash the gangs" responsible for smuggling tens of thousands of migrants into Britain. Now, barely a year later, the number of migrants coming here has set new records.

There have been more than 52,000 small boat arrivals since the election, 40% higher than the previous 12 months. A new record!

A New Record of Boat Crossings

The total number of migrants entering Britain by other means such as hiding in the back of Lorries in unknown but, in the last year over 12,000 migrants admitted entering this way and promptly claimed asylum!
This has brought the total of NEW asylum claims under Labour to a staggering, 111,000!

The top five nationalities claiming asylum are Pakistani, Afghan, Iranian, Eritrean and Bangladeshi. A total of 32,000 asylum seekers are being housed in private hotels at a cost to the British tax payer of £3 billion a year.
The Home Office has a backlog of 70,500 asylum cases waiting to be heard and the Immigration Courts are dealing with a backlog of 51,000 cases.
Since the election of the Labour government an asylum claim is made every eleven minutes!
The government claims of them "smashing the gangs" does not stand up to investigation.
Data from the National Crime Agency reveals that just 192 migrant smugglers were arrested last year, down by over 16% under the last Tory government!

Queuing to Claim Asylum

Despite the abysmal record of the Labour government, news of a "secret airlift" from Afghanistan initiated by the Tory government is causing much embarrassment to our ruling classes. For following a computer "data leak" the identities of over 18,000 Afghan nationals who were paid by the British army to act as agents against the Afghan government were published "on-line".
Fearful of the reaction of the British press the government arranged through the courts a secret "super injunction" banning the information from the British press and public!
Every few weeks unmarked government chartered planes land at airports including RAF Brize Norton and Stansted, packed with hundreds of Afghans.
The total number of Afghan migrants expected to be "smuggled" into Britain by our government is estimated to be in the region of 25,000 at a cost of £2 billion!

Instead of "Smashing the Smuggling Gangs" Labour is joining them!

United Nations Report

"Israel Has Committed Genocide in Gaza"

GENEVA – Israel has committed genocide against Palestinians in the Gaza Strip, the UN Independent International Commission of Inquiry on the Occupied Palestinian Territory said in a new report today.
The Commission urges Israel and all States to fulfil their legal obligations under international law to end the genocide and punish those responsible for it.

The Commission has been investigating allegations of genocide and ethnic cleansing for the last two years, and concluded that Israeli authorities and Israeli security forces committed four of the five genocidal acts defined by the 1948 Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide.
These acts include, killing, causing serious bodily or mental harm, deliberately inflicting conditions of life calculated to bring about the destruction of the Palestinians in whole or in part, and imposing measures intended to prevent births.
"The international community cannot stay silent on the genocidal campaign launched by Israel against the Palestinian people in Gaza.
When clear signs and evidence of genocide emerge, the absence of action to stop it amounts to complicity," "Every day of inaction costs lives and erodes the credibility of the international community.

All States are under a legal obligation to use all means that are reasonably available to them to stop the genocide in Gaza,"
The Commission recommended that Member States cease the transfer of arms and other equipment that may be used for the commission of genocidal acts to Israel; ensure individuals and corporations in their territories and within their jurisdiction are not involved in aiding and assisting the commission of genocide or incitement to commit genocide; and take action on accountability through investigations and legal proceedings against individuals or corporations that are involved in the genocide directly or indirectly.

* * * * * *

As of 10 September 2025, over 66,700 people (65,643 Palestinians and 1,983 Israelis[c]) have been reported killed in the Gaza war according to the Gaza Health Ministry (GHM) and Israeli Ministry of Foreign Affairs, as well as 217 journalists and media workers, 120 academics, and over 224 humanitarian aid workers, a number that includes 179 employees of UNRWA.

Scholars have estimated 80% of Palestinians killed are civilians!

A study by OHCHR, which verified fatalities from three independent sources, found that 70% of the Palestinians killed in residential buildings or similar housing were women and children. (18,000)

Israel Prepares to Annex West Bank

Palestine's West Bank, also known as the "Occupied Territories" is to be annexed by the state of Israel, and the two-million Palestinian occupants bribed or forced into exile. Their lands becoming part of "Greater Israel".

West Bank E1 settlement plan, August 2025

In August 2025, Israeli Finance Minister Bezalel Smotrich announced that Israel would approve the "E1" settlement plan in the occupied West Bank. The plan is for around 3,000 homes to be built to the east of occupied East Jerusalem.

Minister Smotrich said that the approval "buries the idea of a Palestinian state". In July, the Israeli Knesset (Parliament) had passed a non-binding motion calling for the West Bank to be annexed. Israel has argued the West Bank is "disputed", not "occupied" territory and its future remains subject to negotiation.

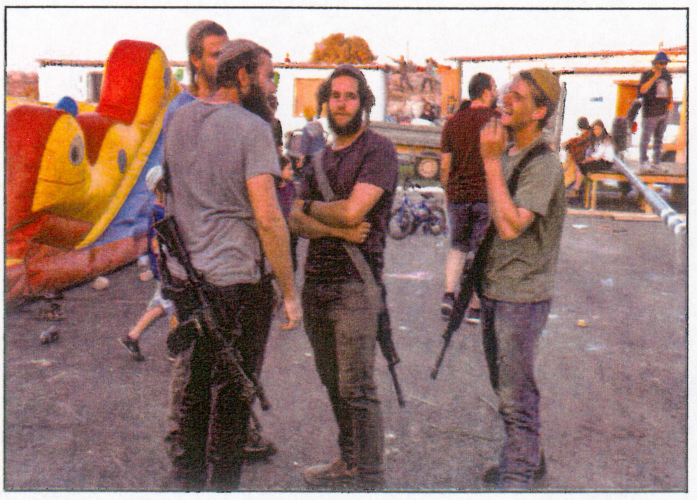
In July 2025 the French, Canadian, and UK Governments announced plans to recognise a Palestinian state at the next UN General Assembly meeting in September, as a means of furthering the Israeli-Palestinian peace process (the UK and Canadian announcements include some conditions). Australia later said it would take the same step. More than 140 countries currently recognise a Palestinian State.

In response, Israel has used armed Israeli settlers to harass the Palestinian population, often burning their farms and forcing them off their lands.

There were between 700,000 and 737,000 Israeli settlers living in the West Bank, including East Jerusalem, as of late 2024 and early 2025. These settlers live in Israeli settlements and outposts, which are considered illegal under international law and have been expanding rapidly in recent years.

More than 80 per cent of 168 Palestinians killed by Israeli forces in the West Bank so far in 2025 were killed in the northern West Bank, including 60 in Jenin governorate.

As we go to print, the Israeli government has approved the building of a major new settlement in East Jerusalem which will further separate access between Gaza and the occupied West Bank, hindering the creation of a Palestinian state.



Armed Israeli Settlers

As we go to print, the Israeli government has approved the building of a major new settlement in East Jerusalem which will further separate access between Gaza and the occupied West Bank, hindering the creation of a Palestinian state.

To it's credit, the British Government has condemned the decision to annex and in an official statement said that "the plan would divide a Palestinian state in two", and represent a "breach of international law" and "critically undermine the two-state solution".

The pro-Zionist US ambassador to Israel, Mike Huckabee, said decisions over whether to proceed with the E1 plan are a matter for Israel !

The Royal College of Defence Studies, one of Britain's most eminent military academies, has banned Israelis from enrolling from next year, due to the ongoing war in the Gaza Strip, the UK government confirmed to British media on Sunday.

Patriotic Alternative

Mark Collett Banned from Europe

Mark Collett ... Deported

Patriotic Alternative activist Mark Collett was delighted to be invited to speak at the Free Sweden Summer Festival.

The festival is a legal gathering of families who have established a real life community in a small rural village. This summer festival was set to be a celebration of Swedish culture, bringing together hundreds of patriots.

Mark has no criminal record and has previously travelling to Europe on numerous occasions without incident.

So you can imagine his shock when on arriving in Sweden he was dragged out of the passport queue and taken for questioning by two border control officers. Following this questioning Mark was held for several hours in a cell before being taken to a small room, where he was told he was being deported and would be BANNED from Europe for 15 years!

Mark was then taken back to the departure lounge, where he was held for 25 hours, without access to his luggage, without knowing when he would be deported, without any food or water and without a bed to sleep in. Mark was never offered any legal representation, there was no due process and the decision to deport him was made in secret.

Mark is now in the process of appealing this scandalous and undemocratic decision.

A Swedish lawyer is representing Mark and is putting forward a full legal claim against the authorities to overturn the ban.

London

150,000 Attend Patriotic Rally

An estimated 150,000 patriots joined the "Unite the Kingdom" march and rally organised by the Patriotic Activist Tommy Robinson.

The marchers gathered at Waterloo and marched to Whithall where their rally was addressed by 20 speakers from UK, France, Germant, Spain, Flanders and the United States.

Speaking via a video-link, US financier and space explorer Elon Musk warned the crowd about the loss of free speech saying,

"Whether you choose violence or not, violence is coming to you. You either fight back or you die!

An ominous warning for all those that love their country!

A Lookback on History

Hitler Jugend: The Memory Lives On

On March 20th 1945 Adolf Hitler made his final appearance on the news: "The Führer hosted the leader of the Hitler Youth, Axmann, plus a delegation of twenty of the Hitler Youth who have defended their country with distinction and were decorated with the Iron Cross".

The origins of the Hitler Youth date back to 1922, formed under the name Hitler-Jugend, Bund deutscher Arbeiterjugend and, from 1936 until 1945, it was the sole boys' youth organisation in Germany. During these years it was composed of the Hitler Youth proper for fourteen to eighteen year olds, and the German Youngsters in the Hitler Youth for younger boys aged ten to fourteen. This article is not a general history of the Hitler Youth, but specifically about SS Division Hitlerjugend (or 12th SS Panzer Division "Hitlerjugend"), and the heroic part it played in the defence of the Third Reich.

Commanded during the Allied invasion of Normandy by SS-Oberführer Kurt Meyer, the majority of its junior enlisted men (all volunteers) were drawn from members of the Hitler Youth (some as young as fifteen), while the senior NCOs and officers were from other Waffen-SS divisions. The SS Hitlerjugend first saw action on June 7th 1944 as part of the German defensive actions at Caen. Caen is about nine miles inland from the Calvados coast astride the Orne River and Caen Canal, at the junction of several roads and railways. The communication links made it an important operational objective for the Allies, who thought they could occupy it in twenty-four hours. Six weeks later, and after heavy loses, when they finally entered Caen they now had respect (albeit grudging) for the fighting prowess of the SS Division Hitlerjugend. The defensive battles that took place in Normandy, particularly the four battles around the city of Caen, saw the young, highly motivated, soldiers of the Hitlerjugend demonstrate "suicidal bravery" and determined resistance, conceding only due to being greatly outnumbered.

After this the Division was withdrawn first to the Franco-Belgian border, where it engaged in hard defensive fighting, then to Germany for reorganisation. Other difficult and demanding battles followed during the offensive in the Ardennes, on the Bastogne front, in Hungary and finally the last battles fought in Austria, where the young soldiers of the Hitlerjugend, despite the desperate situation and the superiority of the enemy, managed to achieve local success and launch desperate counterattacks, even into the last weeks of the war, all in the name of the Führer and the defence of the Fatherland. As Kurt Myer said of his own troops; "I know every single one of these grenadiers. The oldest is barely eighteen. These boys have not yet learned how to live, but by God they know how to die!".

Unfortunately, but obviously, "history is written by the victors" so the Hitlerjugend have gone down as brainwashed automatons, incapable of thinking for themselves. As a youngster I was lucky enough to meet a former member of the Hitler Youth.

In my naivety I asked him if he'd been forced to join. He laughed, not in an unkind manner, then rested his hand on my shoulder - "Were you forced to join the Cub Scouts?" he asked. "No" I said, "I couldn't wait to be old enough", "The same for me with the Hitler Youth" he replied.

Comrades we know the truth, it is our duty to relay it!

I will leave the (nearly) last words to Hans Werk, at the time a seventeen year old member of the Waffen-SS:

"We had been taught to fight for the country until death, and we took that very seriously, and that's what we wanted to do".

On September 14th 1935 at Nuremberg Hitler condemned the rampant degeneracy of the Weimer Republic and the need for a new German who was "more disciplined, fit and trim....a young German must be as swift as a greyhound, as tough as leather, and as hard as Krupp's steel".

He more than achieved this with his Hitlerjugend .

Their memory must live on !

Greece Fights Migrant Invasion

"Five years in prison or deportation"

Greece has become the latest EU country to impose severe restrictions on economic migrants invading their shores.
Over 10,000 have arrived on Crete and nearby Gavdos since the beginning of the year, compared with 4,935 in 2024.
The migrants, mostly from North Africa, board large cargo vessels in Libya and are unloaded on to the Greek island of Crete.

Boatloads of Migrants Invade Greece

In desperation, the Ministry of Immigration has imposed a three month ban on asylum claims from those arriving from North African countries.
"Many are from safe countries, such as Egypt, Pakistan, and Bangladesh," he added, highlighting the origin of many arrivals. "Now we are telling them that if you sail in illegally by boat to Greece, do not expect asylum but get ready for five years in jail or a ticket home instead!
Traditionally, reception centres provide housing and food for migrants, allowing them freedom of movement. However, recent arrivals will not be directed to these facilities. Instead, "detention camps" with prison type accommodation are being created on the Greek mainland.

Secure Migrant Camps

In these "secure" camps migrants have just basic facilities, sleeping on bare floors and using basic "portaloo" toilet facilities. A massive change from the hotel facilities used previously! Migrants are searched before entry and large amounts of cash and jewellery are confiscated.
This is then sold to help offset the operational costs!
Whilst in the camps, migrants are given to option of facing a trial for entering Greece illegally, for which the sentence is five years in prison, or they can volunteer to be deported to their home country, or back to Libya.

Since the new restrictions were introduced the migrant boats have ceased!

European Nationalists Call for 'Remigration' at European summit

400 Nationalist representatives from across Europe convened in Gallarate, Italy, for a summit advocating 'remigration' of foreigners, including descendants of immigrants. The controversial gathering, originally banned in Milan, featured speakers decrying multiculturalism and warning of the 'extinction' of the West.

Originally planned to take place in Milan, the summit was relocated after Milan's mayor, Giuseppe Sala, publicly opposed the gathering.

Andrea Ballarati, the Italian organizer, made a pointed reference to this during the event, stating ironically, "I want to thank the mayor of Milan because, without him, it would not have been possible to do this".

Speakers, in addition to the video messages of the deputy leaders of the League party Roberto Vannacci and Silvia Sardone (the only ones who spoke in Italian), included different activists such as Germany's Lena Kotre of Alternative für Deutschland (AfD),

Dutch commentator Eva Vlaardingerbroek,(above) who spoke about "rapes and genocides" by foreigners and stressed that, without remigration, "we ethnic Europeans will become a minority."

FPO Austria: 'We Need Remigration' and 'Homogeneity".

The Austrian Nationalist party FPÖ has called for the deportation of migrants living in the alpine country back to their countries of origin. The party also advocates for 'homogeneity' instead of diversity, and demands preferential treatment for Austrians in the social sphere, including minimum social security benefits exclusively for Austrian citizens.

The Freedom Party of Austria (FPÖ) has unveiled plans to take a hardline approach to immigration if it comes to power, vowing to increase deportations and enforce strict migration policies.

"We need remigration," FPÖ leader Herbert Kickl said during the presentation of the party's election manifesto. "Remigration" is a term commonly used in right-wing circles to advocate the return of migrants to their countries of origin. Kickl's statement signalled the party's intent to crack down on migration and tighten Austria's borders.

Kickl said asylum applications should be reduced to zero, arguing that Austria is surrounded by safe countries where refugees could seek protection. To further discourage immigration, the FPÖ also opposes allowing family members to join migrants already residing in Austria, hoping to make relocation less attractive.

"True Rebellion"

By PA

Comrades we live in the last days. I don't mean that in a Biblical "end time" way (despite the recent situation in Israel/Palestine that has had many a TV evangelist in ecstasy). No, I mean the last days of the present socio-political-economic system. A system which is collapsing, no longer fit for purpose, and must be replaced.

"That western civilization is passing through a period of crisis, is something that is evident even from a superficial consideration...It is also equally clear that the present crisis is much greater than any other we can compare it with in the past: and that is so, because of the spread of the modern spirit into new manifold branches in which all of which, almost equally, the critical moment is seen." So wrote Julius Evola in 1925, words that, I'm sure you will agree, are so pertinent for today. Evola believed that mankind was living in the 'Kali Yuga' a dark age of unleashed materialistic appetites where the conflict of chaos against order is increasing. To counter this and call in a primordial rebirth he presented a "world of tradition" with values of authority, hierarchy, order, discipline and obedience. According to scholar Franco Ferraresi, Evola's thought is one of the most consistently "anti-egalitarian, anti-liberal, anti-democratic and anti-popular systems in the twentieth century", which he should be applauded for.

He further believed that the crisis of the modern world was 'spiritual' in its causes, and, therefore, had to be 'spiritual' in its resolution.

"With the seed of dissatisfaction deeply planted into the heart of today's society, rebellion has been a small key to unlock the doors of change, but the rebellion the world has known is not the fullness of true rebellion. Since our times have come to a point where things can't get much worse, the few remaining lovers of truth must search deeper into themselves, and deeper into truth itself.

To get to this point a revolution must take place, a revolution in the hearts of these lovers of the truth, a revolution that annihilates all (present) earthly and worldly thinking and that nurtures a way of thinking that is not of this (present) world.

There is a great necessity for this internal revolution, because only with this can progress be made. After this spiritual surgery has taken place true rebellion is an ideal which is obtainable.

" "True rebellion", not a nihilistic rebellion that once only teenagers used to indulge in, but today, in the age of neoteny, one that rather pathetically, continues for many into their dotage. "Sex 'n' drugs 'n' rock 'n' roll", the psuedo-rebellion of the inane.

Ours is a "True Rebellion", a rebellion that offers a glorious rebirth for our people that will open the gates to a golden dawn.

No one is saying it will be easy. As Alexis Carrel wrote "Man cannot remake himself without suffering. For he is both the marble and the sculpture". True, but have you ever felt that your awareness is stronger than others, that you are completely awake while they're still in a deep sleep? Does this resonate with you? If it does then you are with us, and the nation of tomorrow is already present in your heart.

The nation that will rise like a Phoenix from the Ashes.

Hail Victory - Hail the New Dawn!!

SAMHAIN

A sacred day in the Pagan calendar of our North European ancestors

The pagan festival of Samhain starts at sunset on the 31st of October and runs 24 hours until sunset on November 1st.

With the crops safely gathered in, and stored in the barns, it is now the time for the cattle to be brought down from the summer pastures and their winter quarters made ready. Livestock such as pigs were slaughtered and their meat preserved by salting or smoking it. Winter was coming!

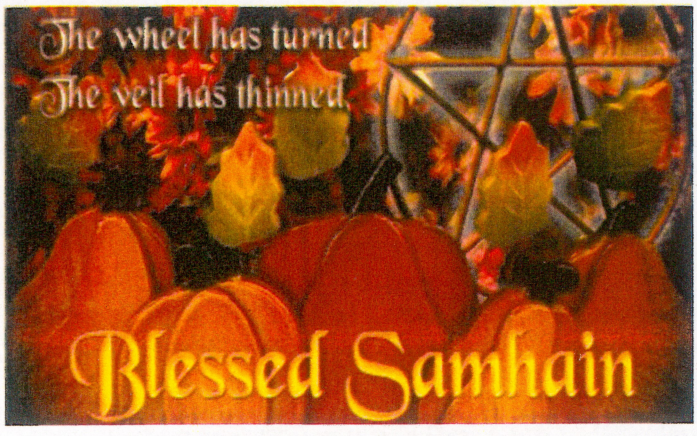
The pagans that inhabited the vast forests of northern Europe believed that the Oak King was born of the Goddess at Yuletide, and ruled the lighter part of the year, growing in strength through the spring and summer, before weakening through autumn until he dies on the eve of Samhain.

The Oak King

Death plays a vital part in the Samhain festivals with the belief that the souls of recently departed kith and kin, will return for a 24 hour period at Samhain. Large bonfires are lit to guide the souls to the camp, and a place is laid for them at the feast table. Prayers are offered to the Gods for the souls of the dead, and prayers of thanks for a successful harvest.

Bonfires are Lit to Guide the Souls of the Dead

In the 9th Century the Christian church created "All Souls Day" to coincide with the festival of Samhain, and this in turn was largely supplanted by the modern US created "Halloween" festival.



Blessed Be!

The author is a member of an Essex-based Pagan group, and has studied and practiced various forms of Paganism for over 30 years.
